FRIDA KAHLO

A tribute to the Mexican painter.
Limited edition of 250 pieces.

Frida Kahlo was both subject and object of her own work. This porcelain bust represents the exuberance of a groundbreaking woman who was ahead of her time. Her characteristic gestures and facial features, as well as the expression of her eyes and lips, are recreated with a high degree of realism. The piece is made in glazed porcelain using several different decorative techniques. Worth underscoring are the brightly colored flowers, handmade as in all Lladró creations, in her headdress and neckline.

Another of the key elements in this piece are the earrings in the form of skulls, an iconic element of Mexican culture. They are made in porcelain and brass plated with 18 carat gold and can be extracted from the piece to be worn as a fashion accessory. The earrings are also available as a separate item.
